ESPIONAGE - R
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Re Albany letter 10/5/51, setting forth information pertaining to MARION MARIETTA PORTER. The current residence listed for PORTER in the files of the Cornell Alumni Office is 301 Penfield Place, Dunellen, New Jersey.

HEROLD LINDSEY GATTY has advised that he met GARY PICKARD at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, around July or August, 1949, through a mutual acquaintance, MARIAN PORTER, now Mrs. JAMES SHLEWOOD, who presently resides in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

GARETH (GARY) PICKARD has advised that MARIAN "SUNNY" PORTER is married to a man by the name of SHLEWOOD who is alleged to be a medical student at one of the medical schools in Philadelphia, Pa. He stated that Mrs. SHLEWOOD and her husband currently reside somewhere in Philadelphia, Pa.

For the information of the Philadelphia Office, the Bureau requested Albany to identify SUNNY PORTER so that appropriate consideration might be given to authorizing her interview concerning the activities of the subject.

The Albany Office advised by letter dated 10/5/51 that the files of the Registrar's Office, Cornell University, reflect that MARION MARIETTA PORTER entered Cornell in the College of Arts and Sciences on 11/1/44, from Round Brook High School. She listed her date of birth as 1/24/27 in New York City, and her mother as Mrs. NELLIE POLESCHUK, 211 West Champlain Road, Nanville, New Jersey. Her records in the Registrar's Office reflected that she [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Cornell University, advised that to the best of her recollection, the [REDACTED] SUNNY PORTER referred to above was known as "SUNNY". [REDACTED] file concerning this individual reflected at the time of her admission to Cornell, she was 5'7 1/2" in height and weighed 130 pounds. She listed her religion as Greek Catholic and stated that she was an only child. She identified her father as JAMES POLESCHUK, listed his occupation as a diamond cutter, and reported him to be a naturalized American citizen. She gave her mother's name as ANASTASIA EVALOFF POLESCHUK, and her occupation as a housewife. It will be noted that this information concerning her residence address and the identity of her mother contradicts the information furnished the Registrar's Office. b7D

[REDACTED] could recall no information concerning this individual other than the fact that in her junior year, her [REDACTED] and she was [REDACTED] along with the fact that she had too many [REDACTED] b7D, b7C

Mrs. ROBERT T. CRAIG, nee Joan Hense Pickard, who is the sister of GARETH (GARY) PICKARD, has advised that SUNNY PORTER, who formerly attended Cornell University and became associated with her brother GARY in 1949, is a possible friend of AXHILL PINESTONE. According to the information she received from her brother, SUNNY PORTER had visited Italy during the Summer of 1950. Further, one CLAUDE D'ARCY had informed her that SUNNY PORTER was [REDACTED] and believed to be a friend of PINESTONE. GARETH (GARY) PICKARD has advised that CLAUDE D'ARCY was a former girlfriend of his during a part of 1950.

Miss FRANK KLEIN, 7 East 85th Street, New York City, advised on October 12, 1951 that CLAUDE D'ARCY is now married to one CHAS. HAUSDORFF, who is an aspirant writer, and currently lives somewhere in San Francisco, California, where her husband is employed as a roofer's assistant. Miss KLEIN stated that the HAUSDORFFS, until most recently, had resided in Los Angeles, California, and that Mrs. HAUSDORFF was introduced to PINSTONE through GALETH (GARY) PICKARD. She also advised that Mrs. HAUSDORFF was formerly married to one GORDON FAIRMAN, and they resided somewhere in California for approximately one year during the 1947-1948 period. She was divorced approximately two to three years ago. GORDON FAIRMAN was employed as a commercial artist.

JOHN DAVID LYLE, 363 West 57th Street, New York City, advised on October 16, 1951 that the last address which he has for the DONALD HAUSDORFFS is 1616 1/2 Malpman Avenue, Los Angeles 27, California. He stated that within the last several days, he had received a postal card from the HAUSDORFFS from San Francisco where they are now residing; however, they failed to furnish him a current address.

Indices of the New York Office failed to reflect any references believed to be identical with MARION HARRIET POMER SHERWOOD, JAMES SHERWOOD, CLARE D'ANCY FAIRMAN HAUSDORFF, GORDON FAIRMAN, and DONALD HAUSDORFF.

The Los Angeles Office is requested to make an appropriate inquiry at 1616 1/2 Malpman Avenue, Los Angeles 27, California, in an attempt to obtain the current address of the DONALD HAUSDORFFS, and thereafter, furnish this information to the San Francisco Office.

San Francisco is requested, upon receipt of the current address for the DONALD HAUSDORFFS, to interview Mrs. DONALD HAUSDORFF pertaining to her knowledge of MAXWELL PINSTONE and DONALD JAMES WEINSTEIN. Mrs. HAUSDORFF should be specifically questioned as to her knowledge of any trips to Ithaca, New York, which either PINSTONE or WEINSTEIN may have made during 1950. It should be noted in this connection that MAXWELL PINSTONE is believed to have driven JULIUS ROSENBERG to contact ALFRED SARANT in Ithaca in JAMES WEINSTEIN'S 1949

Re New York letter to Director, October 3, 1951.

Files of the New York State Bureau of Motor Vehicles reflected the following information regarding W. BRUCE DAYTON:

On January 30, 1947 DAYTON, while residing at 805 South Plain Street, Ithaca, New York, registered a 1933 Ford coach, motor 151361124. This car again on December 30, 1947 was re-registered for the 1948 period by DAYTON when he resided at Cayuga Heights Road, Route 1, Ithaca, New York. His 1947 plate number was 716704 and in 1948 he was issued 7X1158. All records previous to this time have been destroyed by the Motor Vehicle Bureau in accordance with New York State law and it is not possible to determine from whom instant car was purchased. Since no motor number file is maintained by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles it was impossible to determine to whom DAYTON sold instant car.

W. BRUCE DAYTON, R. D. #1, Ithaca, New York, business address - Cornell University, purchased a 1937 Studebaker sedan, engine number D-116-559, serial number 5853129, from PHILIP MARISON 514 Wyckoff Road, Ithaca, New York, subject of a summary report by SA DONALD C. LLOYD, dated 10-30-51 at Albany, New York, characterized as [REDACTED] b7C

1497 car was transferred to DAYTON from MARISON on December 22, 1948 and was registered by him on December 24, 1948, 1949 plate FT 4529, registration number 3892703. This car was registered by DAYTON on January 19, 1950 for the 1950 period at which time DAYTON was issued 1950 plate 7X2333. DAYTON likewise registered instant Studebaker on January 5, 1951 and received New York plate 716111.

SUBJECT: ALFRED EPAMINONDAS SARANT, was, et al;

Reurlet 10/17/51, and report of SA ROBERT F. ROYAL, 10/5/51.

Returned herewith are the original surveillance logs for DAVID GREENGLASS for the dates June 5 through June 15, 1950, inclusive, which were used in connection with the interview of GREENGLASS at the Lewisburg Penitentiary.

Reference report set forth a lead to determine the date on which GREENGLASS became aware of the surveillance. The following is being set forth for your information. It is not known whether New York has previously been furnished this information:

GREENGLASS stated that for some time he had been looking for a surveillance. He stated that on the evening of June 5, 1950, he noted a panel truck parked near his home, that he had never seen this truck before, and immediately became suspicious. He noted that on the side of the truck had been painted "Acme Construction Company," and an address and telephone number for this company. GREENGLASS stated that he had previously quit using his own telephone for any except the most routine telephone calls, so when he saw this truck, he went to a tavern across the street from his home. It is noted that the surveillance logs reflect this visit to the tavern. There he checked the telephone directory for the "Acme Construction Company", and was unable to locate a record for any such company. He then recalled that he called the operator, who advised him that she could locate no number for a company by that name. GREENGLASS stated that it is his recollection that the address printed on the side of the truck was 2nd Avenue, and that the address given was in an upperclass residential neighborhood, where he knew there were no construction companies or similar businesses located.

GREENGLASS stated that he also attempted to telephone the number painted on the side of the truck, and was advised that there was no such number. The above facts confirmed his suspicions that he was being surveilled, and he returned to his home from the tavern.

Miami Confidential Informant [redacted] of known reliability, stated that on October 28, 1951, LOUISE SARANT received a collect telephone call from New York City, phone REgent 4-9794. [redacted] advised that all other toll calls were to Ithaca, New York, phone 3-1865, which is the ROSS home in Ithaca. B7D

Miami Confidential Informant [redacted] of known reliability, stated that LOUISE SARANT had opened a checking account at the Florida National Bank at Coral Gables on October 19, 1951. She showed her address at that time as being 4420 S. W. 14th Street, care of ROSSANT. This account was opened by deposit of a check in the amount of $1,850.00. Since that time there has been only one deposit on January 3, 1952, in the amount of $107.81. Re: ALFRED EPAMINONDAS SARANT, was.
ESP - R, ISA 50

Rerep SA ROBERT F. ROYAL, New York, 10-6-50, in instant matter. The initial interview with Miss GERTA GOLDNER was set forth on pgs. 36-40.

On 4-14-52, SA HERMAN C. LITTLEJOHN and the writer reinterviewed Miss GOLDNER at her residence, 85 Barrow Street, NYC. She was reinterviewed concerning certain items which are being set forth in as sub-headings:

LAST CONTACT WITH WILLIAM PERL --

Miss GOLDNER initially advised in interview on 8-31-50 advised that the last time she saw WILLIAM PERL was in April or May, 1949 at the Henry Street Settlement House in the Village, where they by chance met. She stated that on this occasion she inquired pertaining to JOEL BARR and SARANT, and PERL advised her that BARR was at Rotterdam, Holland studying music and that SARANT was still living at Ithaca, New York. She advised on 4-14-52 that the last time she was in contact with PERL was possibly in the Spring 1950. She further advised that PERL was by-chance met at the Henry Street Playhouse, NYC where the play entitled "THE DY BOOK" was being presented. Miss GOLDNER advised that PERL was accompanied by a young woman, whose name she does not recall; however PERL indicated to her that this woman was a social worker. She described this young woman as white, 5'6" or more, 125 lbs., dark brown curly hair, light complexion, mid twenties,

Photograph of ELEANOR GLASSMAN was exhibited to Miss GOLDNER. She stated that Miss GLASSMAN might possibly be identical with the young woman who accompanied PERL at the Playhouse.

Inquiry was made at the Henry Street Playhouse, 466 Grand Street, NYC, OR4-1200 was made by the writer this date. It was ascertained that Miss BETTY YOUNG, Director of the Playhouse will be back on April 22th, next and would be able to furnish the performance dates for "THE DY BOOK".

FIRST CONTACT WITH PERL --

Miss GOLDNER initially stated on 8-31-50 that she met PERL for the first time on a hike which she, JOEL BARR, PERL and a girlfriend of PERL who was a teacher, made to Bear Mountain in September, 1945. She stated that she possibly again met PERL at SARANT'S apartment during one of the chamber music periods. She stated that the last time she saw PERL was as above etc.

On 4-14-52, MISS GOLDNER advised that this hike was possibly in the Fall 1946 period. She described PERL'S date as white, twenties, medium height, dark hair, and a teacher by profession. She also indicated that PERL was at that time probably residing in SARANT'S 65 Morton Street apartment. She stated that this hike took place on a Sunday between 10am and 5pm. MISS GOLDNER recalled that they all stopped at BARR'S parents home on West 97th Street, NYC and took some pictures up in Central Park. She was unable to recall how or by what means they traveled to Bear Mountain. She did however recall that this trip was subsequent to a trip that she had taken to California during the Summer 1946 and there may have been some discussion between PERL and herself concerning California weather. It is recalled that PERL had returned from California during mid-summer 1946.

MISS GOLDNER stated that the school teacher is not believed identical with HEDE SAVIDGE or ELEANOR GLASSMAN, whose photographs were shown to her on 4-14 in an attempt to identify PERL'S date on the hike in Fall 1946.

FURTHER INFO RE SARANT—

— She recalls that there was a Merchant Seaman who possibly attended one of the Musicals at SARANT'S apartment, in 1944-45 period. She did not recall his name; however she recalled that he was white, medium height and weight, smoked a pipe and had dark hair. Photographs of MAXWELL FINESTONE were exhibited. She state that FINESTONE is not identical with the unknown Merchant Seaman. She was unable to identify FINESTONE as anyone whom she had perviously known.

Miss GERTA GOLDNER further mentioned that SARANT once mentioned, possibly in 1945, that he had a girl friend who had a sister named ALICE, who was ill. Photographs of ALICE KATZ BARSKY was exhibited. She stated that this individuals is not familiar.

JAMES YATES, was
SECURITY MATTER - C

As you are aware, subject Yates took over the occupancy of the basement store located at 227 West 11th Street, NYC, during the latter part of 1945, which store was previously rented by Alfred E. Sarant under the name of the Sarant Laboratories. Yates was interviewed on July 19, 1950, and July 25, 1950, concerning his relationship with Sarant and Joel Barr, the results of which were set forth in the report of SA Robert F. Royal dated at New York on February 10, 1951, in the Sarant case.

It is noted from a review of the information set forth in SA Royal's report that there appears to be a number of discrepancies with respect to Yates' exact connection with the operations at the above premises, as well as his association with Sarant and Barr. It is noted that although Yates claimed he took over the place during the latter part of 1945, the records of the rental agency were in the name of Sarant-Yates up until some date in 1948, and similarly, the records of the Consolidated Edison Company were in Sarant's name until August 8, 1949. Further, Yates during his interview claimed he had heard about the shop being available, and went there and met Barr. He denied, however, that he knew Sarant, but became acquainted with the fact that Sarant was formerly connected with the shop through old letterheads left at the place. These statements are, of course, in conflict with the information received from the Johnsons, who were superintendents of the building, to the effect that they had observed Yates in the store with Sarant and/or Barr on numerous occasions.

In addition to the foregoing, there is suggested for your consideration the fact that on July 25, 1950, Yates announced to the rental agency of the building that he was going to sell his business as he was sick and intended to go away for a long, long time. As you are aware, this announcement of his departure occurred within only a short period of time after his interview by Agents of the Bureau and after the arrest of Julius Rosenberg. Inasmuch as your last contact with Yates was on July 25, 1950, it is not known whether he actually did leave on the intended trip.

It is noted as a result of a review of this file that the last investigative action reported therein covers a period prior to July 14, 1949. Instant file fails to reflect the results of your recent investigation and your interviews with Yates have been appropriately reported therein. It is of particular importance that the admissions of Yates concerning his connection with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, Young
